

ASHBURNHAM LIGHT CELEBRATES PUBLIC POWER WEEK, OCT. 4-10

(Ashburnham, MA), (October 2, 2015) – Ashburnham Municipal Light Plant (AMLP) is celebrating Public Power Week, Oct. 4-10, along with more than 2,000 other community-owned, not-for-profit electric utilities that collectively provide electricity to 48 million Americans.

“Public Power Week celebrates the reliable, affordable electricity Ashburnham Light provides to our community,” said AMLP General Manager Mike Rivers. “Public power puts the people of Ashburnham first, and Public Power Week gives us the chance to emphasize the advantages of locally grown, locally owned power to our citizens,” said Rivers.

“Our service is reliable and safe and we take pride in serving our friends and neighbors,” said Rivers, Ashburnham Light is proud to have served Ashburnham for 107 years.”

As part of Public Power Week, AMLP is giving away packs of 12 foam insulators for electrical switches and outlets to its ratepayers at the office at 24 Williams Road.

*Public Power Week is an annual national event coordinated by the American Public Power Association in Washington, D.C. The association represents not-for-profit, community-owned electric utilities that power homes, businesses and streets in nearly 2,000 towns and cities, serving 48 million Americans. With no divided loyalties, these utilities are focused on a single mission — providing reliable electricity at a reasonable price, while protecting the environment.
